Children & Spirituality

Are our children spiritually literate?

A panel drawn from a variety of faith groups will address the question of the spiritual education of children on

2:30 p.m., Sunday,

November 29th, 2009

at UVic's Interfaith Chapel, near Phoenix Theatre and Finnerty Gardens.

Questions for the panel:

- How does your community educate children in your faith?
- Does the program include education in other world faiths?
- How can we ensure that as many children in the Victoria area as possible gain an appreciation of humanity's spiritual heritage? How do we create morally and ethically grounded world citizens?

There will be an open discussion, and question & answer period.
