

Victoria Multifaith Society

VMS General Meeting

With Star Weiss

Author of Havens in a Hectic World: Finding Sacred Places

A community gathering on the special relationship between spirit and place, to be held

3:00 p.m., Sunday, June 14th, 2009

at UVic's Interfaith Chapel, near Phoenix Theatre and Finnerty Gardens.

Photo by Farah Nosh

With a wide spectrum of British Columbians, from prison inmates to cloistered nuns; from artists to First Nations Elders, Star Weiss uncovers and discusses the diverse meaning of sanctuary in our society. From a mountain peak to an ancient village, from the Ismaili Jamatkhana in Burnaby to Vancouver's Downtown Eastside, each sacred place leads to a deeper inquiry: How can we find sanctuary in a world defined by productivity and efficiency? Where can we seek refuge?

UVic Interfaith Chapel

at the entrance to Finnerty Gardens.
Parking lot 6, off West Campus Gate Rd.
No charge. Free parking at UVic on Sundays.

Held in association with:

University of Victoria

Interfaith Services

